

4th webinar

Transition

Date and duration

03.02.2021.

4 hours

Two blocks: 09:00–11:00, 11:15–13:15

Lecturer

Marcela Vítková

- More than 20 years in the professional business
- Mgr. from Charles University Prague – mathematical modelling
IAA certified actuary
- Background:
  - Allianz (Czech, Austria) – actuary – 12 years
  - Generali holding – group life actuary and risk management – 5 years
  - Many projects (esp. SII, IFRS17) lead and realized
  - Member of the Tools4F team since 2014
- Expert focus on:
  - IFRS17 – methodology, trainings and implementation including calculation tools
  - Solvency II – all pillars (ORSA specifically)
  - Life modelling
  - MCEV, General actuarial support

General introduction

This is the fourth webinar from the IFRS 17 cycle of five webinars covering all important areas of the new Standard for insurance contracts.

This webinar provides complete overview transition approaches.

Theoretical requirements will be illustrated using simple examples to demonstrate practical application.

Seminar objective

- Understanding of transition approaches
- Impact of transition method on future P/L

Targeted participants

- Any employees not (yet) deeply involved in IFRS 17 implementation
- Actuaries
- Managers, chiefs and team leaders
- Regulators, students, academic staff interested in IFRS 17

Webinar agenda

- Possible approaches and their applicability
- Examples of CSM estimation at transition date
- Impacts of transition parameters on future profits
- Decision process of transition approaches